

Costumer Spotlight Essay

25 Unassisted Points Possible

The goal of this essay is to further investigate the roles of the crew in the costume shop. You may choose one of the following costume shop positions to write about: Shop Manager, Draper, First Hand, Cutter, Craftsperson, Milliner or Cobbler. Start by defining what it is they do, and then take us through a day in the costume shop as seen through their eyes. End by explaining how you would prepare for a career in your chosen position. Remember: We're talking about the costume shop version of these professions!
